Paymaster General

London.

Calle de Leste 5
[Nov 10. '87]

My dear Mr Tennison

By this time I suppose you are comfortably settled at home again, and have found all the family well. I enclose the letter for the Paymaster General, which I hope may be of service to us should we stand in need of it. With affectionate regards

Always yours sincerely

J. Reato de Lemos